

Oregon Potato Certification Advisory Committee 2022

Grower Representatives

As of 2022 the bylaws for the PCAC were changed to state that each seed potato farm active in the previous production year is entitled to one voting representative on the Oregon Potato Certification Advisory Committee. Each individual seed farm will be responsible for notifying the PCAC who represents the voting member at the beginning of each meeting. There is no term limit on individual grower members. For a listing of the current Oregon certified seed potato farms see:
